

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Social worker, Educator, Trainer, Success Principles Coach and Consultant, and #1 International Best-Selling Author, Ellen Craine, Named Associate Producer of New Documentary Film Featuring Worlds Self Help Masters and Emmy® Nominated Director

Ann Arbor, Michigan: Local Social worker, Educator, Trainer, Success Principles Coach and Consultant, and #1 International Best-Selling Author, Ellen Craine, teamed up with Emmy® nominated director, Dr. Angela Sadler Williamson, to launch “Authentic Conversations: Deep Talk with the Masters,” a documentary series on how to pick-up the pieces and get our lives back on track to personal wealth and success, featuring the creators of the New York Times Best-Selling Book Series, “Chicken Soup for the Soul.”

“I am grateful and humbled to be a part of this project as we facilitate and create a movement around having authentic conversations. Authentic conversations with others, and ourselves, around a variety of topics are so important especially in these challenging times.” Ellen Craine shares. The documentary is currently on PBS’ national website and app. Film festivals, live screenings, and online streaming are next.

“Authentic Conversations: Deep Talk with the Masters” follows three of the nation’s top motivational speakers. Co-creators of “Chicken Soup for the Soul” Jack Canfield and Patty Aubery, along with International Best-Selling Author and Book Publisher of the “Inspired Impact” series Kate Butler, tell their stories about pivotal moments that led to unprecedented success. These authentic conversations walk us through their personal journey of loss and triumph to the life they are living today. In one meaningful hour, viewers experience authentic conversations to empower us to take action.

Director, Dr. Williamson’s mission is to produce documentaries that inspire change and give people hope. She loves sharing “unknown stories” about people we think we know. “When I produced my first documentary about my cousin, Rosa Parks, I wanted the world to learn about a person who wasn’t taught to us in our history books,” says Dr. Williamson. Dr. Angela Sadler Williamson, 73rd Los Angeles Area Emmy® Awards Nominee for her documentary, “My Life With Rosie.” Dr. Williamson is a former producer/writer at FOX, and now hosts “Everybody with Angela Williamson” on KLCS PBS.

Watch “Authentic Conversations: Deep Talk with the Masters” promo at: Authentic Conversations: Deep Talk with Masters Promo on Vimeo

Ellen Craine is available to the media for commentary.

To Contact Ellen Craine:

ellen@crainecounseling.com

248-539-3850

www.crainecounseling.com

Facebook group: Living through Loss and Grief

Facebook page: Craine Counseling and Consulting Group

LinkedIn: Ellen Craine

About Ellen Craine:

Ellen is a #1 International Bestselling Author in Women Who Empower, the 7th book in the Impact Book Series with Kate Butler. In this book, she writes about being the mom of a pediatric cancer warrior and losing her husband to a brain tumor.

She is set to launch another co-authored book, Women Who Dream, in June 2022. In Women Who Dream, she shares some of her personal journey from her first year surviving breast cancer and how her experiences have ignited a passion in her to support others on their journey regardless of prognosis.

She is an Associate Producer on the documentary: Authentic Conversations: Deep Talk with the Masters written, directed, and produced by Emmy nominated Dr. Angela Sadler Williamson and featuring interviews with Jack Canfield, Patty Aubrey and Kater Butler.

Ellen believes that we have to have more authentic conversations around our life journeys and in particular around loss and grief. She believes that if we can acknowledge that most of the struggles people face, have their roots in losses they have experienced. These losses go beyond losing someone to death. With loss come a variety of reactions we call collectively grief. She will share her thoughts on this topic with us.

She is an effective trainer, educator, relationship and life coach incorporating success principles taught by Jack Canfield; she is a clinical social worker and ethics consultant who loves to empower others on their journey towards emotional healing. With over 25 years of experience, Ellen started Craine Counseling and Consulting Group in 2019. Currently on sabbatical, she teaches part-time for Eastern Michigan University in the School of Social Work. Ellen also teaches a variety of continuing education classes for social workers. She is also trained as an Elementary Education Waldorf Teacher for grades 1 – 8.

Learn more about Dr. Angela Sadler Williamson at:

www.drangelasadlerwilliamson.com

###